Beer Spotlight

Woodchuck Amber Cider

Woodchuck Amber is the original Woodchuck Cider. It's made from a blend of apples and fermented with champagne yeast to produce a great tasting and refreshing alcoholic drink. It's available in 6-packs and 12-packs, as well as on draft.

Here are what the critics have had to say about Amber Draft Cider:

"Golden, medium light body, mild bitterness, medium sweetness, reminiscent of apple cider, fresh herbs. Crisp and pleasant in character with a concentrated apple finish." Beverage Tasting Institute

"Good balance of sweetness, fragrant fruity aroma and pleasant effervescence. A real cider but not that complex." Denning, Barley Corn Magazine

The Beer Connoisseur

Samuel Smith Imperial Stout

Russian imperial stout was originally brewed in Great Britain to satisfy the Czarist courts, who were great connoisseurs of Champagne, caviar and the art of the table. Because it was transported across the freezing Baltic, Russian imperial stout was brewed with a high level of alcohol.

Rich, flavorful, deep chocolate color, scented and roasted barley nose.

Complexity of malt, hops, alcohol and yeast.

Espresso, Stilton and walnuts, New York cheesecake, steak au poivre, caviar, Oysters Rockefeller, chocolate Baked Alaska. Easily hold its own in the company of cigars. Serve in a brandy snifter at 60 degrees.

- 2 eggs
- 3/4 cup cold water
- 2 cup beer, flat
- 3/4 tsp salt
- 1 dash pepper
- 1 1/2 tsp garlic powder

Did you know?

Only 30% of adults in the U.S. believe that drinking can form part of a healthy, balanced life. This is in spite of the fact that moderate drinking is associated with better health and greater longevity than is abstinence.

Bourbon is the official spirit of the United States, by act of Congress.

One glass of milk can give a person a .02 blood alcohol concentration (BAC) on a Breathalyzer test. That's enough in some states for persons under age 21 to lose their drivers license and be fined.
