A View from the Summit

Rogue 15's Black Brutal!

A dream of mine for over 2 years- finally, I got to brew it! As one of a select 60 accounts in the U.S.A., I'm proud to bring you this creation!

Black Brutal is brewed using 2 Row Great Western Harrington & Klages, Munich, Carawheat and Carafoam Malts. The hops are imported New Zealand Southern Cross, NW Horizon & Amarillos and of course- I used my Pac Man yeast and our Free Range Coastal Water.

It's a rich and dark caramel/chocolate color with a smooth rich malt profile and of course the hops will go on forever! Prost!

Editor's Note: Each week, we'll bring you a column featuring a thought, story, or even prose by your favorite people at Summits! And don't forget, you too can be published! Contact snellville@summitsonline.com for details!

Belgian Month!

Just thinking about these 2 special Belgian Month entrees is making my mouth water!

Bruges Battered Chicken and the Smoked Mozzarella Tortellini!

The Bruges Battered Chicken is beer battered chicken tenderloins topped with a mushroom artichoke-asparagus sauce and served with pommes frites, caramelized onions and peas!

The Smoked Mozzarella Tortellini is served with a garlic pesto sauce and tossed with artichoke, ham, and peas. You can add chicken or shrimp!

End of Brew Fest?

After a very successful Classic City Brew Fest in April, organizers were surprised to receive a letter from the festival's host site for the last ten years informing them that the Classic Center no longer wishes to host the event. You can see an electronic copy of the letter at...<http://www.classiccitybrew.com/classiccenterletter.html>

The plan is to scale back the Brew Fest in size and hold the 2006 event either indoors at a smaller venue or perhaps outdoors in a large downtown parking lot.

If you know of a venue where BrewFest might be welcome, please contact Owen Ogletree: (706) 254-BREW or owen@ClassicCityBrew.com

Beer Spotlight: Sierra Nevada IPA

Feeling adventurous? Try one of our specialty drafts. These ales and lagers are available on tap at select locations across the country, including our own Taproom and Restaurant. Brewed in smaller batches, these original interpretations of beer styles from around the world range from light and refreshing to rich and intense.

Brewed using a blend of English malts. Magnum hops are used for the early hop addition, with Goldings for finishing and dry hopping. A very flavorful and hoppy ale.

Beer Connoisseur

Scaldis

Wallonia is the French-speaking part of Belgium and the province where Scaldis is made is called Hainaut. The word means "Land of groves" and indeed it is the richest agricultural province in the country.

The Dubuisson brewery is in the hamlet of Pipaix, outside of Tournai. The brewery has been in operation since 1769, and Scaldis (Bush at home) is the strongest beer made in Belgium. It is hard to believe that Scaldis is 12% alcohol Beers this strong are generally quite heavy and sweet. Scaldis by contrast is quite dry with a pleasant nutty finish.

Also remarkable is the fact that Scaldis achieves its strength without evaporating or freezing out water to concentrate alcohol. Scaldis attains its alcohol level only by fermentation. Three different malts go into Scaldis, making it a beer with as much nuance as potency.

Think of Scaldis as a light alternative to cognac or brandy. Scaldis should be served warm (68°—70°). At this temperature the roasted quality of the barley, the kettle-seared sugar flavors, and the clean hop finish truly bloom. Scaldis has a memorable warming quality.

Dubuisson recently introduced a second beer to commemorate the 225th anniversary of the brewery. Called Bush 7 at home, we have named it Clovis. Clovis is one of the first mighty kings raised on Belgian soil (Charlemagne was another). Clovis was a 5th century Merovingian monarch whose seat, Tournai, became the first capitol of the west. His empire stretched from the Pyrenees to the Rhine. The beer is lightly herbal and hoppy. It bears the Dubuisson house character, but is more quaffable than potent Scaldis.

Cooking With Beer!

Artichoke Risotto With Prosciutto and Saison Dupont

Ingredients:

- 6 c. vegetable broth
- 3 tbsp. butter
- 3 tbsp. olive oil
- 2 shallots, chopped
- 16 oz. canned artichoke hearts
- 1 c. Arborio rice or medium grained rice
- 1/2 c. Saison Dupont
- 1/2 c. freshly grated Parmesan cheese (about 2 oz.)
- 3/4 tsp. chopped fresh thyme
- The juice of 1 lemon

Makes 5 First Course Servings or 4 Main Course Servings

Bring vegetable broth to a simmer in medium sauce pan. Reduce heat to low, cover and keep broth hot

Melt 3 tbsp. of butter and olive oil in a heavy large saucepan over medium heat. Add chopped shallots, saute 2 minutes.

Add rice, stir to coat. Add Saison Dupont and simmer until liquid is absorbed, stirring frequently, about 8 minutes.

Increase heat to medium-high. Add 3/4 cup hot vegetable broth and simmer until absorbed, stirring frequently.

Add the artichoke hearts and remaining hot vegetable broth 3/4 of a cup at a time, allowing the broth to be absorbed before adding more and stirring frequently until rice is just tender and mixture is creamy, about 20 minutes.

Stir in Parmesan cheese, prosciutto ham, chopped fresh thyme and lemon juice.

Serve warm.

Did You Know?

In the 1600's thermometers were filled with brandy instead of mercury.

A raisin dropped into a glass of champagne will repeatedly bounce up and down between the top and the bottom of the glass.

As late as the mid-17th century, the French wine makers did not use corks. Instead, they used oil-soaked rags stuffed into the necks of bottles.

The corkscrew was invented in 1860.

The longest recorded champagne cork flight was 177 feet and 9 inches, four feet from level ground at Woodbury Vineyards in New York State.
