A View from the Summit

The Beginning...

By Kevin - Sandy Springs, Manager

Typically, my monthly article is comprised of some sort of recap of the beer tasting. Although August's tasting was a resounding success with record participation at all three stores, I am going to take this opportunity to write about the topic that is just now starting to gather steam... the upcoming NFL season.

This is the time of year it when it all begins, when news from training camp starts to filter in, when fantasy football magazines line the kiosks, and you just know that if your team gets a few breaks they could be in the big dance on February 5. Even with the heat index cracking triple digits, you can somehow detect a hint of autumn in the mornings. At this time of year you just flat out believe it's going to be a great year (unless you're an Eagle fan of course).

This year, Summits will again offer a full slate of NFL as well as college games and also continue our weekly tradition of football pools. However, new to our line up is that each week we will feature a new menu item that is a traditional cuisine from the city that Atlanta is playing. For example, the special menu will get kicked off with old school style Philly cheese steaks, "Cheez Whiz" and all. Crab cakes and clam rolls will be in town when Seattle and New England are and of course brats will be served for the Packer game.

So, go find that lucky jersey that saw its best days in eighties; drudge up all the arcane adages: never bet against Detroit on Thanksgiving, the Super Bowl loser never does well against the number the following year, a Dome team has never won a Super Bowl, rookie wideouts are lousy fantasy picks, never bet teasers and parlays, etc; and bring your "A" game to Summits Tavern.

Now if I can just find my Boddington's tray.

Spotlight on Beer!

Fullers ESB

First brewed in 1971, ESB is unrivalled in terms of its flavour and balance. A powerful 5.5% a.b.v. in cask (5.9% a.b.v. in bottles and kegs), it is brewed from Pale Ale and Crystal malts, and from Target, Challenger, Northdown and Goldings hops. But don't ask us for the actual recipe - that's a closely guarded secret.

Andrew Jefford, the respected UK drinks critic, sums up ESB's flavour thus: "an ample, grainy-nutty aroma and a broad, authoritative flavour, with lashings of dry marmalade-like bitters", whilst 'Beer Supremo' Roger Protz describes "an enormous attack of rich malt, tangy fruit and spicy hops in the mouth, with a profound Goldings peppery note in the long finish and hints of orange, lemon and gooseberry fruit".

Beer Connoisseur

Lion Heart Stout

7.6% ABV

"Taste the pride, feel the strength." Lion Heart Stout is a truly exceptional stout brewed in the traditional Jamaican Style.

This stout is rich and complex and characterized by slight coffee notes and hints of chocolate.

Lion Heart Stout is brought to you by the folks at Big City Brewing Co located in the heart of Kingston, Jamaica, the only Brewery in Jamaica owned and operated by Jamaicans.

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution / Thursday, Aug. 11, 2005

Bob Townsend's Beer Pick

Lion Heart Stout
Big City Brewing Co. (Kingston, Jamaica)

$6.99 six-pack at metro beverage stores.

► Profile: If your idea of stout is Guinness, this funky, tropical-style stout brewed in Jamaica may come as a bit of a shock. It pours with a deep, dark color and a milky chocolate head. But it's surprisingly light and refreshing, highlighting a sweetish flavor with hints of caramel, coffee and chocolate. And at 7.6 percent alcohol by volume, it packs a deceptive kick. But maybe the roaring lion on the label is a clue.

► Pair with: Drink Lion Heart at your favorite reggae bar, and with all sorts of barbecue and sweet and spicy foods, including ribs, jerk chicken and pork, Mexican mole, and dark chocolate.

Cooking With Beer!

Damper Beer Bread

Ingredients

- 225g/8oz wholemeal flour
- 275g/10oz self-raising flour plus 1 tbsp for dusting
- 1 tsp salt
- 45g/1½oz butter
- 175ml/6fl oz light ale or bitter
- 175ml/6fl oz milk
- 225g/8oz mature Cheddar or gruyère, coarsely grated
- 4 spring onions, trimmed and thinly sliced
- cayenne pepper

Method

1. Sift the flours and salt together in a bowl. Rub in the butter until the mixture looks like fine bread-crumbs.
2. Make a well in the centre, add the beer and milk and gradually mix together to make a soft dough.
3. Turn out on to a clean surface and knead briefly until smooth. Shape into a 25cm/10in round and place in the centre of a large, double-thickness sheet of oiled extra-thick foil.
4. Score the top of the bread in a criss-cross pattern and sprinkle with 1 tbsp of flour. Bring the edges of the foil together loosely to seal.
5. Place the foil parcel on to the barbecue rack and cook over medium-hot coals for 10 minutes on each side.
6. Open the foil parcel and fold back the edges. Sprinkle the top of the loaf with the cheese, spring onions and cayenne pepper and leave for another 5 minutes until the cheese has melted. Remove from the foil and serve cut into thick wedges.

Did You Know?

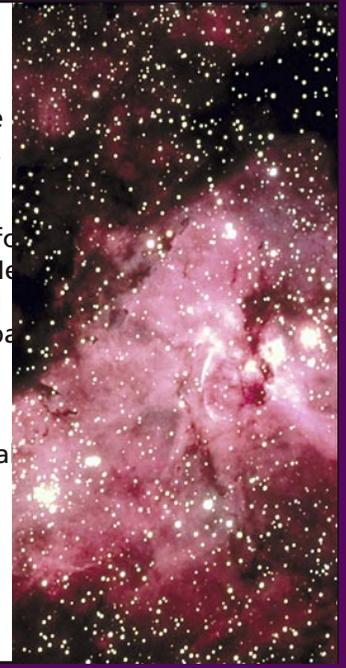

There is a cloud of alcohol in outer space with enough alcohol to make four trillion-trillion drinks. It's free for the taking. . . but it's 10,000 light years away from Earth.

The Mayflower, well-known for bringing the Pilgrims to the New World, ordinarily transported alcohol beverage between Spain and England.

Wine has about the same number of calories as an equal amount of grape juice.
