ROGUEFEST

Summits Staff

It all began on a slow rainy afternoon about ten years ago. I walked this soaked, disheveled, long haired guy with a Rogue bomber in each hand and proudly proclaimed the beer to be the best in the world and that we needed to get this beer in our bar.

Well, the guy turned out to be Glen Falconer one of the top brewers at Rogue and brew master John Maier's best friend. During the next decade, quite a relationship developed between our restaurants and Rogue Brewing. John has been to Atlanta twice to participate in Rogue beers dinners and most of the Summit's staff as well as a slew of customers have made the trek out to Newport (Also known as Mecca, Heaven, the Promised land, and Nirvana to name a few).

Summit Tavern is proud to kick off our first annual Roguefest on December 1, 2005. For two weeks we will offer over 20 different Rogue ales on draft and a specialty menu highlighting Pacific Northwest Cuisine. All of the past private locker selections that we have been featuring each month will be on tap as well as some old favorites such as Yellow Snow and Imperial Stout.

Furthermore, each customer who orders a Rogue will be entered in a drawing to win an all expenses paid trip to Newport and to be a brewer for the day.

Brew dog was quoted as saying "Roguefest will be so big it will make Oktoberfest seem like a Tri Lamda keg party. Roguefest will be like Christmas, New Years Eve, the Fourth of July, Festive, Bastille day, and the Tet Offensive, all wrapped in

Coconut Beer Batter Spam With Raspberry Horse Recipe

Ingredients

- 2 3/4 cup flour
- 2 tbsp oil
- 2 eggs
- 3/4 cup cold water
- 2 cup beer, flat
- 3/4 tsp salt
- 1 dash pepper
- 1 1/2 tsp garlic powder
- 12 oz (1 can) spam or spam lite
- 2 cup shredded coconut
- 1 raspberry sauce:
- 1 cup raspberry sauce or jelly
- 3 tbsp horseradish sauce

Directions

Open beer and leave at room temperature over night.

Chill beer and then add water, oil and eggs. Mix just enough to break the egg yolks. In separate bowl, mix flour, salt, pepper and garlic powder. Add to liquid ingredients, while stirring slowly. Add coconut and stir slowly.

Prepare deep fryer as directed by manufacturer. When oil is ready, dip one inch wide strips of Spam in beer batter and deep fry until they float to the surface.

To make raspberry sauce, combine raspberry syrup or jelly with horseradish sauce in small bowl.

Dip in raspberry sauce and enjoy.
