Peroni

The original Italian lager

Peroni is the number one lager brand in Italy and has been for over one and a half centuries. This premium, clear, golden-yellow lager, with 4.7 ABV, is the result of the dedication to brewing of generations of the most qualified braumeisters.

Brewed using the finest barley, malts and hops, its taste is slightly bitter. A refreshing smooth lager, Peroni is suitable for all occasions.

Cooking With Beer

Pepper Flank Steak with Chili Beer Sauce

- 1 T. olive oil
- 2 T. red bell pepper, minced
- 5-6 sun-dried tomatoes, snipped into strips
- 1 cup Canterbury Dark Mild Beer (or substitute)
- 2/3 cup chili sauce
- 1 T. grated horseradish
- 2-3 pounds flank steak, marinated six hours or overnight in Canterbury Dark Mild Beer (or substitute), then rubbed with cracked black pepper

In a stainless-steel saucepan (not iron, not aluminum) over medium heat, heat olive oil and sauté red pepper, onion, garlic and sun dried tomatoes. When tender, add brown beer and chili sauce, simmer five minutes. Stir in horseradish. In a heavy skillet over high heat, sear marinated pepper-rubbed steak to desired degree of doneness. Slice thin against the grain, on the diagonal. Serve on top of green salad tossed with cheese and light vinaigrette, with beer sauce on the side.

Did You Know?

In 1900 there were over 1,800 breweries in the U.S. In 1980 there were 44, and in 2001 there were close to 2,000. The ups and downs of brewing beer!

Supposedly the oldest known written recipe is for beer.

Part of a 19th century BC epic poem (hymn) devoted to the ancient Sumerian goddess of brewing.

One of the reasons the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock in 1620, rather than sail further south to warmer climate, was because their supplies were dwindling, "especially our beere."
