A View From the Summit...

Snorkelling - Uniquely!

Jan - Summits Manager - Snellville

I have rediscovered one of my passions, swimming. I love to swim! When I lived in Hawaii, I used to swim out in the ocean. It was an awesome feeling being able to just "go". Ocean swimming is so different from swimming in a pool. In the ocean, you never leave carrying the smell of chlorine with you, you never have a problem finding an open spot to swim, and of course, you never have to worry about closing time!

In Hawaii, I actually swam in competitions. I was there more for the fun and sheer beauty of my surroundings than the actual races. At least that is my story. The truth is, I never did that well in the races. I usually came in the middle toward the end of my age group. In one event that I entered, I came in second to last place. All I'm saying is thank goodness for that 70+ year old man! I really did enjoy these swimming events. They were fun, and who wouldn't enjoy swimming with all the colorful fish? We would swim anywhere from 1 to 3.5 miles. Some swims were a bit scarier than others due to the waves crashing on us! And swimming is not a sport where you can stop and rest, if you do, you might drown! You have to keep pushing forward, with the tide and waves pushing you back. Sometimes I would swim and swim and swim, and realize that I hadn't moved at all. It is all about perseverance!

One of my favorite swims was to Rabbit Island. It was the first swim that I did. I tagged along with the local swim club. The swim was a mile each way. In choppy and shark infested water (luckily, I didn't know about the sharks until later!) it seemed a lot further. But it was exhilarating!

It was always fun to leave work and walk next door to Ala Moana Park and swim from one buoy to the second and back again. It was a stretch along the beach that took about 30 minutes. And if I was lucky, some days a big sea green turtle would pop its head up next to me!

When I moved back home, I missed swimming. I had been spoiled by the long ocean swims and had no desire to share a lane in a lap pool. I admit it, I was a swimming snob!

But recently, I started going to the Mountain Park pool in Lilburn, and it is great! They have 2 indoor pools, one is for play and the other is dedicated to exercise, it is a great lap pool!

I have a whole new outlook. I am excited about going to the pool to do my workout. I was at first a little apprehensive...You see, I take my fins, mask, and snorkel with me! I was embarrassed as to what the other athletes might think of me snorkeling in the pool. I soon learned that no one cares! Everyone is there doing their "non traditional" swimming as well.

We are all there for one reason, to get fit and feel good! Come and join me at the pool one day. You can't miss me, I'm the goofy one in the fins and snorkel!

Beer Geek

Maudite

In November 1992 Maudite (the damned one), was the first strong beer to be distributed in Quebec grocery stores. It contains 8 % alcohol and is also the first beer brewed in America that improves with age. When served young, it is very smooth, but when served after several years of storage, its flavour is reminiscent of port. Maudite is a mahogany-colored, rich-tasting premium beer that has a distinctive, complex taste. Because of the warmth it releases, this strong character beer must be served cool but not cold.

Perfect with pasta, red meats, stews and spicy dishes, it also makes a good aperitif and after-dinner drink.

Maudite has a typically Quebecois name that is reminiscent of the legend of the Chasse-Galerie (the legend of the Flying Canoe). Legend has it that a group of lumberjacks struck a deal with the devil to fly home in their canoes, guided by Satan himself, to make it home in time for Christmas.

Cooking With Beer

Beer Butt Chicken Recipe

Ingredients:

whole chicken
can of beer or pop
poultry rub

Directions:

Rub outside of a whole chicken with a prepared rub of your choice. Set chicken on the can of beer and place over indirect heat on the grill. Be careful...it tips easily. On the side with heat, place a metal breadpan full of water. Make sure the chicken is on the side without heat or it will burn. Put the lid down and let it cook for about an hour or until a meat thermometer registers around 185 degrees. Take it off the grill and enjoy!

This chicken is so moist. It tastes very different depending on the rub you use. A can of pop works equally well.
