Beer Spotlight

Brooklyn Oktoberfest

When Crown Prince Ludwig of Bavaria wanted to celebrate his wedding engagement in 1810, he did what any good Bavarian prince would- he threw a beer festival. Both the festival and the special beer served there became known as Oktoberfest.

Brewed from the finest German malt and hops, Brooklyn Oktoberfest is true to the original style, full-bodied and malty, with a bready aroma and light, brisk hop bitterness.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

History in the Making!

On September 20, 2006 Summit's History was made. Mike "The Deuce" Doucette (left) and Ron "Beerman" Smith (right) simultaneously obtained the status of Tier III. Both are show celebrating their 500th beer at their "second home" the Sandy Springs location. Cheers, guys! Congratulations!

Beer Geek

Brooklyn Post Road Pumpkin Ale

Early American Colonialists, seeking natural ingredients for brewing ales, turned to pumpkins, which were plentiful, flavorful, and nutritious. Blended with barley malt, pumpkins became a commonly used beer ingredient. Post Road Pumpkin Ale brings back this tasty tradition. Hundreds of pounds of pumpkins are blended into the mash of each batch, creating a beer with an orange amber color, warm pumpkin aroma, biscuity malt center and crisp finish.
