The Good Wife

Taken from the Housekeeping Monthly, May 13, 1955

·Have dinner ready. Plan ahead, even the night before, to have a delicious meal ready on time for his return. This is a way of letting him know that you have been thinking about him and are concerned about his needs. Most men are hungry when they get home and the prospect of a good meal is part of the warm welcome needed.

·Prepare yourself. Take 15 minutes to rest so you'll be refreshed when he arrives. Touch up your make-up, put a ribbon in your hair and be fresh-looking. He has just been with a lot of work-wear people.

·Be a little gay and a little more interesting for him. His boring day may need a lift and one of your duties is to provide it.

·Clear away the clutter. Make one last trip through the main part of the house just before your husband arrives. Run a dustcloth over the tables.

·During the cooler months of the year you should prepare and light a fire for him to unwind by. Your husband will feel he has reached a haven of rest and order, and it will give you a lift too. After all, catering to his comfort will provide you with immense personal satisfaction.

The Good Wife....

·Minimize all noise. At the time of his arrival, eliminate all noise of the washer, dryer or vacuum. Encourage the children to be quiet.

· Be happy to see him.

·Greet him with a warm smile and show sincerity in your desire to please him.

·Listen to him. You may have a dozen important things to tell him, but the moment of his arrival is not the time. Let him talk first - remember, his topics of conversation are more important than yours.

·Don't greet him with complaints and problems.

·Don't complain if he's late for dinner or even if he stays out all night. Count this as minor compared to what he might have gone through at work.

·Make him comfortable. Have him lean back in a comfortable chair or lie him down in the bedroom. Have a cool or warm drink ready for him.

·Arrange his pillow and offer to take off his shoes. Speak in a low, soothing and pleasant voice.

·Don't ask him questions about his actions or question his judgment or integrity. Remember, he is the master of the house and as such will always exercise his will with fairness and truthfulness. You have no right to question him.

·A good wife always knows her place.

Editor's Note: Each week, we'll bring you a column featuring a thought, story, or even prose by your favorite people at Summits! And don't forget, you too can be published! Contact snellville@summitsonline.com for details!

Spotlight on Beer

Flying Dog K-9 Cruiser

You have seen him everywhere and he is everything. From sky, surf, and snow, he is the comrade who will pump you up and give you courage.

K-9 Cruiser is a dark, sweet and malty beer brewed with oats to sustain you on a cold winter day. K-9 Cruiser is a true Flying Dog original and the perfect brew for the more adventurous craft beer drinker.

Beer Geek

Sam Smith Winter Welcome

Throughout history, beer of somewhat higher alcohol and richness has been enjoyed for the winter holidays, when old friends get together to enjoy the season. Wassail, a festival to celebrate winter and the beer that goes with it, predates the Christian era. Winter Welcome is vintage-dated with a special label each year. Serve in a traditional tankard for the holidays.

Honey-amber-colored, creamy head of small bubbles, floral aroma and delicious malt flavor with great finesse.

Cooking With Beer

Eggs on Tap

- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1/4 tsp. Tabasco
- Dash Worcestershire sauce
- 2/3 cup beer
- 1 cup flour
- 2 tbsp. vegetable oil
- 1 lb. Swiss cheese
- 2 tbsp. melted butter
- 1/4 tsp. Cayenne pepper
- 8 eggs

Blend eggs, Tabasco, Worcestershire sauce, and beer together. Stir flour and vegetable oil into egg mixture and beat until smooth. Cut cheese into 1/2 inch slices. Dip cheese slices into batter to coat them. Sauté cheese slices in butter until brown on both sides. Arrange cheese slices in a 13x9x1-3/4 in. baking pan. Beat cayenne pepper and eggs together and pour over cheese. Bake for 12 minutes. Serves 6. From The Beer Store.

Summits University

Belgians, Barleywines & Bodacious Chocolates

- January 2007

Just when you thought the holiday celebrations were over.... If you have a sweet tooth you simply cannot miss this night. As the name suggests this event will pair some of the richest Belgian ales and Barleywines along side gourmet chocolates. This is the ultimate pairing and this is not to be missed. The cost of $59.99 per person includes dinner and pours of the featured beers paired with chocolates. Please reserve your place in advance.

Rewards to GO!

This is a program designed to reward our loyal customers for their Call In / To Go business. Membership is FREE! Each time a member of the REWARDS TO GO program places an order for Take Out, the dollars spent are translated into points. These points accumulate and are converted to Condors. For every $1 you spend on take out food or retail items you earn 1 point.

Once you accumulate 200 points you will earn $20.00 in Condors.. our own personalized house cash. There will be bonus days where you will earn Double Points! Every Wednesday will be double point day! Ask your server for details! We appreciate your business and this is one of the ways that we say "Thank You".

Community Boards!

Got some news that you want to share with everyone? Don't be shy, brag on your children and bring us pictures of your pets too! Let all of us know what is going on in your life through our community boards! Each Summits location has a "brag" board. You can use it to sell your '68 Mustang, or rent your house. Even better is to share the birth of your grandchild and your son being accepted to UGA! Leave business cards too!
