April: National Donate Life Month

Organ procurement organizations, transplant centers, and other organizations sponsor special awareness events and donor recognition ceremonies to promote donation awareness. More about National Donate Life Month

Each day, about 77 people get the organ transplant that gives them a second chance, but 19 others die waiting for a donated organ

0 Days to Help Save a Life:

What to Do in April National Donate Life Month was established in 2003. Every day in April, people across the U.S. make a special effort to celebrate the tremendous generosity of those who have saved lives by becoming organ, tissue, marrow, and blood donors and to encourage more Americans to follow their fine example. Make it known: I want to be a donor

*Register with your State Donor Registry, if available.

Tell someone: The need is great and growing.

- *More than 95,000 people are in need of an organ for transplant.
- *Each day, about 77 people get the organ transplant that gives them a second chance, but 17 to 19 others die because they did not receive an organ transplant.
- *More than half the people on the waiting list for a donated organ are racial or ethnic minorities. Chances of getting a transplant increase if donor and recipient share the same racial/ethnic background.

Heaven knows we need them here!

Spotlight on Beer

Terrapin Rye Squared

Double the malt, double the hops, and double the flavor of the original Rye Pale Ale recipe. (Hence the name Rye Squared.) With its mammoth hop aroma, bitterness and flavor, this beer is not for the faint at heart. The Rye Squared clocks in at a hefty 8.5% ABV so double your pleasure and double your fun because Terrapin went a little crazy with this one!

Malt: 2-row pale, Munich, Malted Rye, Bisuit Malt, Honey Malt.

Hops: Amarillo, Cascade, East Kent Goldings, Fuggle, Magnum.

IBU's: 80

O.G.: 22.3

ABV: 8.5%

Cooking With Beer

Beer Battered Soft Shell Crabs with Asian Dipping Sauce Recipe

courtesy of Gourmet Magazine

Beer Batter:

1 scant cup all purpose flour plus extra for dusting
12 ounces beer, reserving 4 ounces to thin batter if necessary

Sauce:

3 tablespoons fresh lime juice
3 tablespoons Thai fish sauce (nam plo), available at speciality or Asian markets
1 tablespoon honey
3 tablespoons water
2 garlic cloves, minced
1 scallion, thinly sliced
2 very thin slices of a habenero, scotch bonnet, or jalapeno chili, depending on desired degree of heat
4 small to medium soft shell crabs, cleaned and rinsed
Milk for soaking crabs
Salt and freshly ground black pepper
Peanut oil for frying
Scallion brushes, cilantro sprigs and lime wedges for garnish

Put the flour into a bowl and make a well in the center. Pour 1 cup of the beer into the well and whisk until the mixture is just combined. Strain the batter through a sieve into a clean bowl and let it rest, covered, for 1 hour. Before using batter, whisk in additional beer, if necessary, to achieve desired consistency.

In a small bowl whisk together the lime juice, fish sauce and honey until dissolved. Add the water, garlic, scallion and chili slices. Set aside.

Place cleaned crabs in a shallow dish and add enough milk to cover. Soak crabs for 10 to 15 minutes.

In a heavy deep pan heat 2-inches of peanut oil to 350 degrees F. Season the crabs with salt and pepper. Dust the crabs with flour, shaking off any excess. Coat and fry crabs two at a time. Dip each crab into the beer batter and allow extra batter to drip back into bowl. Carefully lower the crabs into the heated oil and fry until golden brown, turning once, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer fried crabs to paper towels to drain. Repeat process with remaining two crabs. Arrange crabs on individual serving plates. Garnish with scallion brushes, cilantro sprigs and lime wedges. Serve immediately with dipping sauce on the side.

Beer Geek

90 Minute IPA

Availability: Year-Round

Esquire Magazine calls our 90 Minute I.P.A., "perhaps the best I.P.A. in America." An Imperial I.P.A. brewed to be savored from a snifter. A big beer with a great malt backbone that stands up to the extreme hopping rate. This beer is an excellent candidate for use with Randall The Enamel Animal!

9% abv / 90 ibu

Tasting Notes: Brandied fruitcake, raisiney, citrusy. In case you care... the average 12 oz. serving has 294 calories.

Did You Know?

The term "brand name" originated among American distillers, who branded their names and emblems on their kegs before shipment.

The region of the U.S. that consumes the least alcohol (commonly known as the "Bible belt") is also known by many doctors as Stroke Alley.
