Get Crabby...

Have you heard? "All You Can Eat Crab Legs" every Wednesday from 4 to 10 pm. And it's not just crab - the fries, the chowder...

Gluten?

For people suffering from Celiac Disease gluten is poison. There are limited dietary choices for people with gluten sensitivity and beer is off limits!

Woodchuck Draft Cider is not a malt based beverage and there are no additional glutes added into the formula. This means that Woodchuck Draft Cider is gluten free! Woodchuck is the perfect alternative to beer for people with gluten sensitivity!

Anheuser Busch has also recently begun to promote a gluten free beer made from Sorghum called Redbridge. It's available at Summits in the bottle and is a great tasting brew.

Cooking With Beer

Beer-Battered Fried Okra Stuffed with Crabmeat

Courtesy of Emeril Lagasse, 1998

- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon Creole mustard
- 1 tablespoon plus 2 teaspoons chopped garlic
- Juice from 1 lemon
- 1 small jalapeno, seeded and chopped
- 1/4 cup chopped green onions
- Salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 cup olive oil
- 1/2 pound crabmeat, picked over for cartilage
- 4 ounces cream cheese, at room temperature
- Freshly ground white pepper
- 24 large fresh okra
- 1 1/2 cup flour, sifted
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 6 tablespoons Abita Beer
- 2 egg yolks, beaten
- 6 tablespoons milk
- 2 egg whites, beaten to stiff peaks
- Essence (recipe follows)

Preheat the fryer. In a food processor, fitted with a metal blade, combine the egg, mustard, 1 tablespoon of the garlic, lemon juice, chopped jalapeno and green onions. Process until smooth. Season with salt and pepper. With the machine running and in a steady stream, add the olive oil. Process until the mixture is thick and smooth. Reseason with salt and pepper. In a mixing bowl, combine the crabmeat, cream cheese, and remaining garlic. Mix well. Season with salt and white pepper. Using a sharp knife, split each okra in half, removing the seeds. Stuff each okra with about 1 tablespoon of the filling. Press the okra tightly, sealing the filling inside. In another mixing bowl, combine the flour and sugar together. Whisk in the beer, egg yolks, and milk. Whisk until smooth. Season the batter with salt and pepper. Cover the batter and let rest for 30 minutes. Uncover the batter and fold in the beaten egg whites. Holding the stem of the okra, dip each stuffed okra into the beer batter and carefully drop into the hot oil. Fry until golden brown, about 3 to 4 minutes. Remove from the oil and drain on paper towels. Season with Essence. Serve the okra hot with the dipping sauce. Garnish with parsley.

Ommegang Rare Vos Amber Ale

Named after a Brussels bar made famous as the starting point for bicycle and pigeon races, our Rare Vos Amber Ale is also a great place to begin your virtual taste test. As you pour, you'll notice the beautiful coppery-amber color and the rich creamy head. Lift the glass to your mouth and enjoy the aroma of spicy orange blossoms. Taste, and the pleasant mellow flavor of caramel malt glides easily into a dry, hop finish. Once you've finished, start again (after all, this isn't a race).

Intended for the café as well as the dinner table, Rare Vos is an amber ale of medium color and strength. It sports aromas and flavors of caramel, orange, hops, plus an elusive fruity-yeasty flavor which will have you tasting in circles.

Did You Know?

An award-winning adaptation of Little Red Riding Hood was withdrawn from a recommended reading list by the school board in Culver City, California, simply because the heroine had included a bottle of wine in the basket she brought to her grandmother.

The word "ton" (metric tonne) is derived from a tun, a wine barrel. It gets its name from the French "tonnerre," or "thunder," from the sound the barrels made when rolled.
