Beer Recipe

Shrimp in Beer Batter

This recipe makes a big ole' mess of beer battered shrimp. This is a great Superbowl party recipe.

3 pounds of shrimp in shell
2 cups warm beer
2 2/4th cups flour
2 teaspoons paprika
dash of Tabasco
dash of Worcestershire sauce

Peel and split shrimp, leaving tails intact. Mix all remaining ingredients together. Roll shrimp in additional flour, salt and pepper. Dip into beer batter and fry in deep hot fat for 2-3 minutes.

Yield: 6-8 servings

Beer Geek

During the European Middle Ages and the Renaissance, beer was often a nutritional necessity and was sometimes used in a medicinal setting. It could be flavored with almost anything, from the bark of fir trees to fresh eggs and thyme. Everyone drank beer, including children.

Passport Club

Take a trip around the world with 100 different draft beers from our extensive draft list and you'll receive a personalized 20 oz. dimpled mug from Summits Wayside Taverns®.

There is a $2.00 registration fee, but 100% of that is donated to Habitat for Humanity. Isn't that reason enough to join? The Passport Club works like this:

1. Tell your server you'd like to join the Passport Club.
2. Your server will bring you a form to fill out and your own personal beer list. The beer list stays at Summits for your convenience.

3. Fork over the two bucks and order a draft.

That's it! Your server will provide your own draft menu on which we'll keep a record of your beer journey. Each time you stop in, just ask for your passport list.

Already got your mug? Try for Passport Club Tier II! This time you get to tour our bottled beers.

Did You Know?

It is not true that the Great Wall of China is the only man-made structure that can be viewed from space - many man-made objects, including the Dutch polders, can be viewed from space.

Quote of the Week

"If you ever reach total enlightenment while drinking beer, I bet it makes beer shoot out your nose." -Deep Thought, Jack Handy
