March at the Summit continued...

Monday: Randall Mondays!

Every Monday we hook "Randall" up to a different beer line and filter it through various hops for a truly unique beer experience! What is a "Randall"? A "Randall" is a filtering device that allows beer poured fresh from the tap to filter and steep through fresh whole leaf hops. The result is a super hop charged brew! The process is called "dry hopping" and you'll have the chance to experience a different dry-hopped beer every Monday.

(Randalls will begin at Woodstock this Spring.... We're anxiously awaiting our new Randall!) Consult the e-zine each week for a listing of the Randall for the day!

Cooking With Beer!

Beer and Ginger Marinade Recipe

From The New Settlement Cookbook edited by Charles Pierce (Simon & Schuster), for About.com

Ingredients:

- 1-1/2 cups flat beer
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh ginger
- 2 cloves garlic, coarsely chopped
- 1 (1-by-3-inch) piece of orange peel

Directions

In a nonreactive bowl, combine the beer, olive oil, ginger, garlic, and orange peel. Use a receptacle large enough to snugly hold the meat (beef, lamb, or game) but not too large or flavor will not penetrate. Cover tightly and be sure to leave the meat in the marinade long enough to pick up the flavors of the liquid, at least 6 hours and up to 48. Turn frequently so that the marinade is evenly distributed. Strain and use as a basting sauce if desired.

Yield: About 2 cups

Beer Geek

English Light Mild Ale

English Dark Mild Ales range from deep copper to dark brown (often with a red tint) in color. Malty sweet, caramel, licorice and roast malt tones dominate the flavor and aroma profile with very little hop flavor or aroma. Very low diacetyl flavors may be appropriate in this low-alcohol beer. Fruity ester level is very low. Classic Producers: Bank's Mild (Park Brewery, England)

Beer Spotlight

Lion Stout

(Ceylon, Sri Lanka)

(tasting notes taken from the late, great Michael Jackson)

The brewery's principal product is lager, but it made a pale ale until the 1960s, and it still produces a stout. This pattern is typical in former British colonies. As golden lagers became more popular, the bronze or copper "middle" color vanished, but a black porter or stout survived for those who wanted something truly dark. All beers were stronger in colonial times, and these old black brews typically had between 6.0 and 9.0 per cent alcohol by volume. The Ceylon Brewery's Lion Stout has in recent years increased its alcohol from 6.3 to 8.0 by volume.

TASTING NOTE:

Pruney, mocha aromas and flavors; tar-like oiliness of body; peppery, bitter-chocolate finish.

FOOD PAIRINGS:

Anything with coconut, especially Sri Lankan curries and similar mild-but-spicy dishes from elsewhere in the Indian subcontinent or South East Asia. To make a great dessert, blend it with melting ice-cream, then freeze the result. Serve with bitter-chocolate cookies.

Food Spotlight

Georgia's Best Reuben

A traditional Reuben sandwich made with State National corned beef- the very same corned beef used in the famous New York delis! This one uses almost 3/4 pound of corned beef that is shaved to order and is topped with melted imported Swiss cheese, sauerkraut and authentic Russian dressing on fresh rye bread. Served with french fries and a pickle. A must try!

Did You Know?

The Star-Spangled Banner became the US national anthem in 1931. Prior to that, it was My Country 'Tis of Thee," which had the same melody as Britian's national anthem God Save the Queen, which is based on music written by John Bull in 1619. Bull's melody has been used more than any song in national anthems.
